

Your wedding day, truly memorable...

In a beautiful and dramatic setting such as Keele Hall, your wedding will be a truly memorable occasion. You'll enjoy a magical, intimate wedding, with all the warmth of a family home framed by the Staffordshire countryside.

You'll have the freedom to marry, have your photographs taken in our Italian Gardens, then dine and dance the night away. One visit to Keele Hall and you'll see why it's the perfect setting for a beautiful and memorable wedding.

The SALVIN ROOM

Your perfect setting...

Named after architect Anthony Salvin, the Salvin Room is loaded with 19th-century retro elegance. Famous for its highly decorative ceiling, antique mirrors and enormous windows, the Salvin Room comfortably entertains up to 93 guests for your wedding breakfast, all complemented by views onto our Italian Gardens and ornamental lakes for those picture perfect moments.

Every wedding at Keele Hall enjoys a wedding co-ordinator, experienced service team and in-house chefs, who are all waiting to create the perfect setting for your dream day.

The
BALLROOM

The more the merrier...

The Ballroom is the largest banqueting venue in Staffordshire and our most flexible space.

Not only can it host up to 400 dining guests, but it can also be filled with fantastic floral bouquets, neons, fairy lights and popcorn vendor. Plus, the Ballroom also comes with your own dedicated bar and access to the gardens – perfect for an evening full of celebration.

So whatever size guest list you have, Keele Hall has flexible spaces and packages to entertain them all. Just ask.

A magnificent venue...

If you're looking for elegant chandeliers, a dramatic wooden staircase, ornate fireplaces and beautiful oak-panelling, our Grade II listed mansion house offers the perfect setting for your civil ceremony or welcome reception.

The Great Hall, with its vast amount of natural light and space, can be used to greet guests and deliver welcome drinks. And the Old Library, lined with century-old books and a secret staircase, makes Keele Hall a wonderfully unique venue.

Come the evening, a purpose-built dance floor can be laid in the Great Hall, perfect for partying the night away in style.

The GROUNDS

Majestic, all year round...

Whether it's the lush greenery of spring, the warm sun of a British summer, the changing colours of autumn, or snow-covered grounds in winter, Keele Hall is the perfect wedding venue for every season.

Our Italian Gardens, sweeping lawns, ornamental lakes and secluded areas, are a dream for any photographer, creating the perfect backdrop for stunning wedding photography. This will enable the story of your day to be caught on camera for you to enjoy and share for years to come.

Food and DRINK

Tailored to you...

To watch the people you love chatting and laughing all in one room is truly magical.

Perfectly tailored food and drink is something we pride ourselves in at Keele Hall. From reception drinks through to the evening buffet, we've something for every wedding budget and theme.

Rest assured that whether you want a menu that's simple, elegant, or the best of British, it will be delivered with first-class service and quality, leaving you free to savour every toast, giggle and loving glance.
